

2017 Nevada Small Farm Conference
February 3-4, Nugget Casino Resort, Sparks

To our supporters,

If you are as passionate as we are about Nevada agriculture, we have an exciting opportunity for you.

The 2017 Nevada Small Farm Conference celebrates its 11th anniversary on February 3-4, at the Nugget Casino Resort in Sparks. We invite you to be a part of this premier gathering for Nevada's farmers and supporters by becoming an event sponsor. Sponsorships keep the conference affordable by underwriting expenses and keeping registration fees low. They also allow the conference to maintain a scholarship program.

Sponsorship provides an ideal opportunity to showcase your organization and network with attendees. More than 200 participants attended the 2016 conference. We anticipate even more attendees in 2017, including farmers and ranchers, businesses, students, federal and state agriculture agencies, food policy advocates, and more.

Below is a listing of marketing opportunities for your organization. We can also design a custom sponsorship package to fit your needs. We encourage you to become a sponsor. Your sponsorship demonstrates your commitment to supporting and sustaining Nevada agriculture.

For more information about the conference and sponsorship opportunities, contact Ann Louhela, conference coordinator, at 775-250-1339 or ann.louhela@wnc.edu.

Please complete and return the attached application by December 15, 2016, in order for your sponsor logo or name listing to be included on print materials.
